District Conference of the Church of the Brethren

Following is a continuation of the report of the District Conference of the Church of the Brethren.

An explanation of the leadership Training Courses was given by Rev. John Wicand.

After this there was a Round Table Discussion about Sunday School work and Leadership Training. At 11.30 an address was given by Russell Burriss on "Jesus the Master Teacher." Many examples of Jesus' teaching were related and shown how applicable they are in the solving of many problems of today. He spoke of Jesus methods, how the parables were used to interpret great spiritual truths in a manner in which the people could understand them. This scholarly address was well presented and should be of much benefit to many.

All in all the program of the morning was thought-provoking and was a challenge for new adventures in Christian Service.

And it is all the more remarkable because it was contributed to mainly by the young people, which denotes a growing leadership among them.

Wednesday afternoon Prof. Brightbill spoke on stimulating congregational singing. He reminded us that music is an avenue for spiritual expression in the church, and if we get a vision of the possibilities, that music can contribute to the spiritual life of the congregation, then our singing will be stimulating. Another important point Prof. Brightbill stressed was that intellect and emotion should be organized to give us the best and highest of spiritual experience.

Then at three p.m. the Mothers and Daughters met under the leadership of Mrs. Cawley. The Fathers and Sons were presided over by B. B. Weber. In the evening Prof. Brightbill talked on Music in Worship. He spoke about interpreting the value hymn tunes and the worth of great tunes to strengthen our worship services. Cheap types of religious (Continued on page 4)

Church of the Brethren Notes

The pastor will be in charge of the services at the Church of the Brethren next Lord's Day. There should be no "vacation" from the worship of the true God. We have to many blessings to neglect prayer and praise.

There will be a program of readings and declamations on "Peace" next Sunday evening under the direction of Mrs. Culp.

Three prizes will be awarded to those holding the first three places in singing.

Buffalo Hill News

The wedding dance at Union Jack School on Tues., July 31 was quite a success. There was a big crowd and good music was supplied by the Tuttle Sisters, of Vulcan, which was greatly appreciated. A generous supply of smokes was passed around to all who wished them and a good time was enjoyed by all. A pleasant surprise was made by the M.C. to the newlyweds, which was appropriately replied to by Mr. and Mrs. James Wyatt. Dancing was kept up until 3 a.m.

Mr. Roscoe Shatto and family returned from a trip to Washington and British Columbia and report a splendid time. They had heard of apricots selling for $14 to $16 per ton and so made for tomatoes. One man loaded a truck load of cherries $50 piles and lost $30 on the wheat growers.

We noticed Bert Starling's light delivery in town yesterday, loaded up with new bed springs and bedding—as usual it was for someone else, but any excuse is better than none at all. We wonder.

songs produce a cheap type of religious experience. The music and the words must be of a nature so as to stimulate thought. "Singing without thought is like faith without works. Prof. Brightbill then gave examples of this by putting different words to one tune. Our hymnal is spiritual not any material.

Thursday Morning the morning worship was conducted by Albert Hollinger who read several poems suitable for worship and meditation.

The Bible hour was a further study of the music of the Old Testament. When the destruction of the temple took place the Psalter and instruments were destroyed but it was pointed out to us that music is the soul of man thus it cannot be destroyed. The Bible preserves for us these psalms and we today can know of the songs which were sung by the Jewish people.

The next on the program was the three ten minute talks. The first, "The Minister and His Message," by D. R. Beard, spoke of how the minister must adopt himself to the people whom he wishes to meet. He stressed the point that the minister has a vital message for everybody in all walks of life.

The next talk "The Minister and the Holy Spirit" by B. B. Weber told us that the message cannot be given without the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is the life of the message, giving it vitality and power.

The third was the "Minister and Prayer" by R. C. Moreash. He spoke of the necessity of prayer to prepare the minister to give his message. Prayer is communion with God and thus man can receive from God and then give unto his fellowmen.

Prof. Brightbill then spoke of the opening here in Western Canada for young people in Christian Service. If the church goes forward there must be an awakening to the values of Christian education. And he felt that that very thing had happened and is happening at this very time. All of those present felt this and an opportunity was given for those who wished to more fully consecrate their lives to the Christian Service. Quite a number responded to this call.

The afternoon was given to a discussion of the work of the church. "Achievements of the Past Quarter of a Century" was the subject of a brief historical review by J. S. Culp.

Though S. M. Burger denied being a prophet yet he gave us a preview and challenge for a forward program during the next five years.

Rev. Wiesand then gave a pointed discussion on the subject "Preparing for our task." We need to prepare both spiritually and intellectually for fuller and better service in the work of the church.

The first part of the evening service was a musical program on the "Life of Christ" illustrated by pictures. Following this Prof. Brightbill again brought a challenging message after which a large group of young people and a few older ones signified their desire to dedicate their lives more fully to the work of the church. A most impressive service, in which four young people formally pledged themselves to the ministry of the church closed the day's work.

The attendance on Friday was not as large as on the previous days, but a very profitable and profitable business session was held. One of the most interesting of the decisions was that another Bible School will be held this winter, in Arrowwood.

The local church wishes to thank the friends of the community and town who extended courtesies during the entertainment of both the Young People's Camp and the Conference.

Who Proposed the Use of the White Safety Line?

A national search is being conducted to find the man who first proposed the use of a white safety line down the center of America's Highways.

The hunt, now being sponsored by Canadian Goodrich Co. Ltd., was first started by the Fresno, Calif. Chamber of Commerce and officials of this group recently enlisted the cooperation of the rubber company. Goodrich sponsored the Silvertown Safety League which now has a membership of more than 2,000,000 drivers pledged to observe all traffic laws.

A fitting tribute will be paid the man who contributed the idea which made driving safer through its use, if he can be located and his claim established.

Extensive investigations have already been made in many states but so far without success. The name of the "unsung hero" is still in doubt.

Claimants are requested to write to the Canadian Goodrich Company, Limited in Kitchener, Ont.
